Revised Constitution of Whiff-Goomill Club

= Fraternity =

Change is the one thing in life that brings about all joy and all sorrow. Men are continually making changes in homes that they may better their conditions, but it does not always turn out as they desire.

However, that does not alter the case, as we are still willing to take risks, because we see others making a success by changing.

There is but one change that all true men can make that have not already made it, that is to change from a non-fraternal state to a fraternal one.

Fraternity is everything. It exhibits highest and noblest character in man. It places him in a condition not only to be helped but to help. It is a greater thing to do something for a friend than to have a friend do something for you.

"It is more blessed to give than to receive."

The Whippoorwill Song

I.
I love to stray by the woody rill,
When evening shadows lay,
And hear the song of the whip-poor-will,
As he sings his evening lay.
Chorus -
Soprano solo
Whip-poor-will, whip-poor-will, repeat three times
Ah list - Ah list, as he sings his evening song
Sweet song

Whippoorwill - whippoorwill - whippoorwill whippoorwill - whippoorwill
Ah list Ah list, as he sings his evening song -
Sweet song

II. Ah soft the trills his evening lay,
By breezes borne along;
A saddened feeling o'er me creeps,
As I listen to his song.
Chorus.

III. It calls to mind the old, old home,
So many miles away;
With loved lost friends
I have oftimes heard him sing
His evening lay.
Chorus.
